

It's 2022 and Arts With A Purpose continues to grow!

HISTORY TO DATE

In 2017 and 2018

Arts With A Purpose provided 104 workshops and performances with an emphasis on inclusivity, racial and cultural equality employing over 80 artists from dance, music, visual, theater and digital disciplines collaborating with more than 25 locations in and outside Indianapolis.

In 2019

AWP provided 67 programs, employed 83 artists collaborating with 13 locations including neighborhood centers, afterschool programs, and Summer Camps for Girls Inc, Indy parks, Concert Series at IMCPL Downtown and Irvington as well as special events: Create! @ the Indiana State Museum, Blake Fest @ Garfield Park, Slippery Noodle Blues in The Afternoon fundraiser and 13 Friday night "Arts Pop Up" on Indy's Near Eastside.

In 2020

At the beginning of the pandemic AWP was commissioned to coordinate 35 outdoor courtyard concerts at five low income senior apartments providing work to over 80 musicians. Also at that time we collected more than fifty arts videos from Indianapolis creatives to make available to isolated communities. The Indiana Music archive was installed at Garfield Park Arts Center and the Life-Long

Learning libraries were installed at 4 different low income senior locations. We provided safe distanced and masked workshops on-site for teens at summer camps and performances at fundraisers for the Mozal Sanders Foundation, ProAct Indy, and the Martin University Center For Racial Equity & Inclusion. And in May we officially established an office on the 3rd floor Arts Corridor at Broadway United Methodist Church.

In 2021

Long term residencies were established providing ongoing workshops at Flanner House Ujamaa bookstore (six per week) and three Independent Adult Daycare locations (six per month) that continue to date. Additional collaborations involved 19 locations, and a total of 168 dates including a six part concert series at the Intermissions Plaza and the Boner 50th Anniversary celebration.
